THE LAST MATCHUP: WOFFORD at COASTAL CAROLINA

Dec. 7, 2018

Terriers outlast Chanticleers 87-81

CONWAY, S.C. – Behind 26 points from Fletcher Magee and a career high 16 from Trevor Stumpe, the Wofford men's basketball team picked up its first road win of the season with an 87-81 victory at Coastal Carolina. With the win, Wofford improves to 4-4 on the season, while Coastal Carolina falls to 3-4. Wofford has been Coastal Carolina in back to back years, both on the road, after emerging victorious in a close one in 74-77, last season.

It's about finding ways to win and we did that tonight," said head coach Mike Young. "I'm proud of the guys."

Four Terriers scored in double-figures to pace a well-balanced scoring performance. Magee scored 26 on 10-4 shooting and was a perfect 5-5 from the arc. He also added a game high seven assists, a new career high for the junior. Magee has 20+ points for the fifth time in Wofford's eight games and has moved into 25th place on the all-time scoring list with 1,236 points.

Stumpe followed with a career high 16 points in just 21 minutes of action. The sophomore guard was 5-7 from the field and 4-6 from the arc, also a career high for made threes. Matthew Pegram scored 14 points and pulled down a team high seven rebounds. He added two assists, one steal, and took two charges within the first three minutes of the game.

"We don't win this game without Stumpe," said Young. "He played really well and really hard and I knew he was going to help our team win when we got him back healthy."

Cameron Jackson was the fourth Terrier in double-digits. He was 4-6 from the floor and added 11 points in 21 minutes. Storm Murphy scored seven points, sinking two threes and a free throw. The freshman hadn't scored in the three previous contests.

"We don't win this game without Stumpe," said Young. "He played really well and really hard and I knew he was going to help our team win when we got him back healthy."

After scoring just 13 threes in the last two contests combined, Wofford erupted for 14 three's on Sunday at Asheville and I'm happy to see this response."

The practice floor so we can sharpen the saw a little bit, but this will go a long way in the next few games."

After three consecutive road games, Wofford returns home for the next two contests. Next up, Wofford hosts Georgia Tech on Wednesday, Dec. 6. The Terriers also host Johnson & Wales University on Saturday, Dec. 9 before hitting the road again.

"It's nice to have five practices before facing Georgia Tech," noted Young. "We need time on the practice floor so we can sharpen the saw a little bit, this will go a long way in the next tick up for this club. We came in today and responded after not playing like our normal group on Sunday at Asheville and I'm happy to see this response."

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Southern Conference announced its preseason all-conference team and polls on Thursday, with Wofford guard Fletcher Magee being selected as the preseason player of the year by the league's 10 coaches.

Senior forward Cameron Jackson joins Magee on the preseason all-conference team which was also selected by the coaches, as Wofford was picked to finish second in both the coaches' and media polls. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own teams or student-athletes as part of the balloting. The 2018-19 all-conference team features 11 players due to a tie in voting.

Magee, who was named the Malcolm U. Pitt Player of the Year by the SoCon media last season, led the nation in 3-pointers, making 148 which was good for fifth-most in NCAA Division I history. The senior guard, who was a finalist for the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year Award, was recently named to the 2018-19 Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year Award watch list and slated as the top shooter in the nation by college hoops insider Jeff Goodman.

Magee led the SoCon in scoring last season, averaging 22.1 points per game, shooting 48 percent from the floor and 44 percent from three. The Orlando, Florida native helped lift the Terriers to victories over the ACC's Georgia Tech and No. 5 North Carolina last year, scoring 36 and 27 points, respectively. Magee, who now holds the Wofford record for 3-pointers made (351), set a career high in both points (45) and 3-pointers (11) against Chattanooga (Feb. 17, 2018), scoring in double figures in all but one game last season.

Jackson, who was named second team all-conference last season, averaged 12 points per game in 2017-18, pulling down a team-high 5.9 rebounds per game. A native of Winchester, Virginia, Jackson was named the Lute Olson National Player of the Week and SoCon Player of the Week after scoring 18 points, pulling down nine rebounds and blocking six shots as Wofford upset the No. 5 North Carolina Tar Heels in Chapel Hill (Dec. 20, 2017). The senior forward ranks seventh all-time at Wofford with 78 blocked shots, totaling 45 in 2017-18.

Wofford, which finished last season 21-13, going 11-7 in SoCon play, was slated just behind the defending regular-season and tournament champion UNCG by both the coaches and media. The Terriers totaled 74 points, receiving four first-places votes in the coaches' poll, totaling 214 points and receiving six first-place votes by the media.

ETSU, Furman and Mercer finished third through fifth in both polls, respectively. The Citadel grabbed sixth place in the coaches' poll while Chattanooga was picked sixth by the media, with Samford, Western Carolina and VMI rounding out spots 7-10.

A new era at Wofford began in 2018 with the opening of the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. The new home of basketball and volleyball is adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football.

Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson, Class of 1959, provided the gift to fund the facility that includes a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 350-seat volleyball competition venue as well as offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, training rooms and special fan areas, including several open-air suites. The facility replaces Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate gymnasium for intramural and campus recreational activities.

“The Richardsons have done it again,” head men’s basketball coach Mike Young said. “First the Center for the Arts and now the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. I’m eager to tour prospective students through both buildings to show them, as well as tell them, that Wofford student-athletes are students first.”

The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium also has a seating capacity for non-athletics functions, such as commencement and concerts, of 4,500. The facility includes “Club 51” for club seat holders, the “Boneyard” lounge in the student section, state of the art sound system and acoustical design, along with electronic charging stations throughout the building.
