Magee’s second three of the contest put him over 100 for the season, giving him back-to-back seasons with 100+ points in the first two games. The Citadel answered with a 15-8 run to tie the game at 22 with nine minutes to go in the half. From there, no team led by more than four in the half. Tied 39-39 with just over two minutes to go, Magee scored on a layup to put the Terriers out in front but The Citadel’s Matt Frierson knocked down a three with seven seconds to go and the Bulldogs held on for a 42-41 halftime advantage. Thirty of Wofford’s 41 points came in the paint. In the second half, Kaelon Harris converted on a layup attempt and pushed the lead to three but Magee responded with his third free throw of the contest to tie it up. The teams traded points until Magee scored eight points in a minute and a half and put Wofford up 64-54. The Bulldogs began to chip away at the lead and pulled within two with 6:37 to go on a layup from Frankie Johnson. The Citadel regained the lead for the first time since the 19:10 mark of the second half with 2:10 to go. Johnson scored on a layup and Frierson added another with a minute to go to go up 76-72.

He missed the second and the Bulldogs came up with the defensive rebound to seal the win.

A new era at Wofford began in 2018 with the opening of the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. The new home of basketball and volleyball is adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football.

Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson, Class of 1959, provided the gift to fund the facility that includes a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 350-seat volleyball competition venue as well as offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, training rooms and special fan areas, including several open-air suites. The facility replaces Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate gymnasium for intramural and campus recreational activities.

“The Richarson have done it again,” head men’s basketball coach Mike Young said. “First the Center for the Arts and now the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. I’m eager to tour prospective students through both buildings to show them, as well as tell them, that Wofford student-athletes are students first.”

The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium also has a seating capacity for non-athletics functions, such as commencement and concerts, of 4,500. The facility includes “Club 51” for club seat holders, the “Boneyard” lounge in the student section, state of the art sound system and acoustical design, along with electronic charging stations throughout the building.
2017-18: Redshirted due to NCAA rules.

2016-17 (College of Charleston): Appeared in all 35 games for College of Charleston his freshman season, starting three — Averaged 2.3 points and 2.9 rebounds in 9.8 minutes per game ... Scored a season high eight points three times and contributed a season-high 20 minutes in the Cougars game at Delaware.
