SCOUTING WOFRD

Shooting the 3-pointer has been key for Wofford's success this season, winning both contests in which it had a higher 3-point percentage than its opponents. Scott Murphy is shooting a red-hot .625 from behind the arc (10-16). The Terriers look to get stronger on the boards, having been outrebounded in all three contests so far this season. Chevez Goodwin is doing a little bit of everything for the team, scoring 9.3 points, grabbing 5.3 rebounds and swatting six shots to go with three steals.

SCOUTING BUTLER

The Bulldogs have various strengths thus far in the young season, among them being the 3-pointer, allowing opponents to connect on just 25 percent of threes attempted. Like Wofford, Butler takes care of the ball, boasting a +8.0 turnover margin. Four Bulldogs are scoring 11 or more points on the season, including forwards Sean McDermott (14.7), Bryce Nze (13.3), Jordan Tucker (13.0). Nze has been a beast on the boards, grabbing 9.7 rebounds per contest.

Terriers rally, fall 80-79 to William & Mary

SPARTANBURG, S.C. - The Wofford Terriers welcomed William & Mary to the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium for its first game in the 2019 National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame Classic, falling by one point after a layup by Bryce Barnes put the Terriers up 80-79 with just under four seconds to play.

Wofford, which held a four-point lead at halftime, trailed by eight points with under four minutes to play, but scored eight unanswered points to tie the game at 74-74 with 1:27 left on the clock. William & Mary would pull back ahead by four, but turnovers and fouls gave Wofford a 79-78 lead before Barnes made his only bucket of the night to send the Terriers home with the victory.

Storm Murphy and Nathan Hoover each scored 18 points, hitting three 3-pointers each and combining for a perfect 8-for-8 from the floor, while senior Trevor Stump scored 16 points on 7-of-9 shooting. The big men for William & Mary carried their team, as Andy Van Vliet and Nathan Knight each dropped 21 points, with Knight pulling down 11 rebounds. As a team, the Terriers shot 45.2 percent from the floor and 43.5 percent from 3-point range, turning the ball over just six times while forcing 10 from the Tribe.

"It was a hard-fought game," said Wofford head coach Jay McAuley. "Those are probably two of the most talented big guys we'll face all year as far as a duo, so it was a great lesson for us as far as how physically you have to play against guys like that."

The loss is Wofford's first of the year, falling to 2-1. The Terriers will hit the road for the first time this season, traveling to Butler for a matchup with the Bulldogs in Hinkle Fieldhouse on Saturday at 8 p.m. as part of the 2019 Hall of Fame Classic.

Stump started the game off with a bucket in the lane, but William & Mary jumped out to a 12-7 lead. Hoover would begin to make his presence felt, converting a four-point play to pull Wofford to within one. Tray Hollowell scored a pair of buckets, including a key 3-pointer that put the Terriers up 16-12.

Knight pulled the Tribe back even, hitting a fadeaway at the shot clock buzzer and layup in the paint to knot the score 74-74 with 1:14 to play. After Knight scored in the paint, Tyler Hamilton hit a pair of free throws that gave the Terriers a 76-74 lead. Wofford would pressure the ball and force a turnover, leading to a transition three from Murphy to give each side a chance to win.

Goodwin was locked in to start the second, converting a feed from Larson, two free throws and blocking a shot as Wofford went up by five. The Tribe would find their shooting stroke, however, knocking down three 3-pointers to take a one-point lead. With Goodwin on the bench, William & Mary pushed its lead to seven, but Murphy and Hollowell each scored to make the deficit three.

Moments later, Hoover connected on a 3-pointer from the top of the key, setting up an elbow jumper from Hollowell each scored to make the deficit three.

Butler 80, Wofford 79

On the ensuing inbounds, Wofford's full-court press forced a turnover, as Hoover got the ball upcourt and found Stump who knocked down a triple just before time expired to send Wofford to the break up four (39-35).

Goodwin was set to convert a third free throw, but fouled going to the rim, hitting both free throws to make the score 79-78 with 11.9 seconds to go. On the ensuing inbounds, Wofford's full-court press forced a turnover, as Hoover got the ball upcourt and found Stump who knocked down a triple just before time expired to send Wofford to the break up four (39-35).

Ross Cummings, Sr., G, Mercer

ASHEVILLE, N.C. – The Southern Conference released the men's basketball preseason all-conference team, coaches and media polls on Monday, as Nathan Hoover was selected to the Preseason All-SoCon team and Wofford was picked to finish fourth in both polls.

The coaches, who also picked a preseason all-conference team, were not allowed to vote for their own teams or student-athletes as part of the balloting. The coaches and media predicted the league's teams to finish in the same order. Wofford totaled 52 points in the coaches' poll and 216 in the media poll. ETSU was voted to finish first in both polls while UNCG's Isaiah Miller was selected as the preseason player of the year.

The Terriers are coming off a historic season that saw the school enter the Associated Press Top 25 rankings and earn a NCAA Tournament victory for the first time while sweeping the Southern Conference regular season and tournament. Wofford will now be guided by Jay McAuley who served as the associate head coach for the past two seasons prior to being named head coach (April 14).

Despite losing Lou Henson and SoCon Player of the Year Fletcher Magee and first team All-Southern Conference member Cameron Jackson, among others, Wofford returns eight players from last season.

The Terriers will be led by Nathan Hoover, who averaged 13.6 points and 2.5 rebounds per game as a junior. The Memphis, Tennessee native had a monster postseason, scoring 20 second-half points in the SoCon Championship to propel Wofford to its fifth tournament title. Hoover continued to roll in the NCAA Tournament, dropping 18 points in a victory over Seton Hall and a team-high 19 points against Kentucky.

In total, Wofford welcomes eight players back including returning starter Storm Murphy (8.0 ppg, 3.3 apg). In addition to the eight returners, the Terriers will get a boost from a pair of redshirt freshman, totaling six newcomers in all. Chevez Goodwin, who came on strong down the stretch last season, figures to be a big piece of the Wofford lineup in 2019-20 alongside senior Trevor Stumpe.

Wofford opens the season on Tuesday, November 5, welcoming Erskine College to Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium.

A new era at Wofford began in 2018 with the opening of the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. The new home of basketball and volleyball is adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football.

Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson, Class of 1959, provided the gift to fund the facility that includes a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 350-seat volleyball competition venue as well as offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, training rooms and special fan areas, including several open-air suites. The facility replaces Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate gymnasium for intramural and campus recreational activities.

“The Richardsons have done it again,” head men’s basketball coach Mike Young said. “First the Center for the Arts and now the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. I’m eager to tour prospective students through both buildings to show them, as well as tell them, that Wofford student-athletes are students first.”

The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium also has a seating capacity for non-athletics functions, such as commencement and concerts, of 4,500. The facility includes “Club 51” for club seat holders, the “Bone-yard” lounge in the student section, state of the art sound system and acoustical design, along with electronic charging stations throughout the building.

BY THE NUMBERS

- 123,655 Square Feet
- 3,400 Seating Capacity for sports
